The rain can be a bit disruptive when camping, but in general, it is not a big problem with showers quickly clearing and sunny skies returning within hours. Zambia is known as the birthplace of the walking safari. It was instantaneous love. Try to prepay for as much of your trip as possible, because making large payments I would hands down recommend them for your next trip to Africa! If you're headed to a particularly remote spot, make sure that your insurance covers medical evacuation as. Go with small, intimate and owner-operated establishments! In many countries, carrying large amounts of cash around isn't safe; however, I strongly recommend that you save some money by forgoing the infinity pools, copper baths and timber decks, for a longer time on a private under-canvas safari, on the ground and amongst the wildlife! Very good 2.
