Hope I can keep up, but I will read the blog for support! For library requests or general questions email: office bltsinc. I like to give home made items for gifts all through the year and especially at Christmas.

This looks like a great way to bring some skills up. We used to sew together and Hopefully I can finish everything and have time to work on something new. We are using her t-shirts for it as a memory quilt. I do my best to steal minutes for all types of stitchery in hopes of creating beautiful art from nothingness. I wanted to be able to knit items for. Food pantry and other needs, agency. There are many sweet elderly people there who have no family that visits or cares about. I seem to always have at least one project to sew for school!
