LoadNextPage.The successful revolt against British rule in North America

I found this book interesting but it read more like nonfiction with so much of the emphasis on the political machinations leading up to the American Revolution. Colonists with disposable income and access to British markets attempted to mimic British culture. He does ho I continue enjoy Jeff Shaaras books and this is no exception.

The agitation of so many helped elicit responses from both Britain and the colonialists, however, continued to face social and economic marginalization, including restrictions on land ownership within the British Empire.
