As I will show using contemporaneous literary and philosophical works, the individual in the Buddhist cosmos is always entwined within a complex and ever-changing system in which stable identity is a fiction. As before, he combines just the right touch of personal, local experience – he lives on an unidentified island in the Pacific Northwest – with wide-ranging research.

How can I do that if I absolutely cannot finish it?! Plate 5, Tenryu-ji Images, center left image, shows the lotus pond in the foreground with a view of Mount Arashi as borrowed scenery in the background. The process of growing a garden tree is like drawing or building a tree, for instance, for a stage set or miniature railroad.

That reserve and sense of propriety which characterizes this people in all things, the artist places these elements in artificial relationships with pieces of furniture, photographs, museum objects or details of clothes, evoking the perception man has had and has of nature, his acquired appreciation of it and its methods, and the place he has assigned himself in it.
