Getting local currency Peruvian Nuevo Sol. Deborah Bircha hospice nurse wants so much for her dying patients - a pain free death with dignity and peace and emotional healing. His first book, LAST RIGHTS, was an expose on the overly aggressive medical treatment most people receive in the last chapter of their lives, with many suggestions for ways of providing more humane care.

The book is, in its way, a fine advocate for hospice. These simple tools will warm your heart, lift your self-esteem and provide you with the stepping-stones to a more confident life.
