Merlin realizes he is but a pawn in the hands of the powerful and cynical superpowers that rule the universe, that neither the Pattern nor the Logrus or their manifestations as Unicorn and Serpent care much about their "minions", and that someone or something wants him to rule Chaos – and that others will try to manipulate him when he is. All in all, this was a unique YA read and I really am looking forward to seeing what happens. For a fourth straight year our Gumptious Vanguard presented its annual collection of top-quality small press RPGs.

The Mad Scholars risked their sanity to bring us this collection of Cthulhu Mythos-saturated titles:. Zangband is a single-player roguelike computer game with a setting, magic system, and race options that are loosely derived from Zelazny's Amber multiverse, with the Serpent of Chaos as its final adversary.
