In each province there is a central provincial school offering intermediate and secondary courses. The School of Forestry must be expanded to train men to carry on the various phases of forest conservation and to provide replacements for the pioneers in forestry, many of whom have now rendered more than 30 years of continuous service and who, because of age and ill health, will soon have to retire. Wernstedt and Spencer reported that forest cover declined from about 90 percent of the total land area at the time of the first contact with the Spanish in to about 70 percent by

Wherever it was humanly possible to do so, the Ifugaos carried me in blankets. However, the fallback of relationship between the two countries in favor of China and Russia resulted in the Philippines establishing deep defence ties and cooperation with the latter two, abandoning its military ties with the United States while affirming that the country will no longer participate in any US-led war. This is most important work. The cogon grasslands are commonly used as pasture, but they have a carrying capacity. Cogon grass is suitable as a forage only during early growth, so the range is regularly burned toward the end of the dry season, which contributes to wildfires that penetrate and further destroy forestlands. Most of them are selections from local seedling trees, and they are confined to only a few nurseries and backyards.
