He'd have gone two years ago if it hadn't been for the war. Having pushed the demoralised and disintegrating French Imperial armies out of Spain in a difficult campaign the previous autumn, the Allied British-Portuguese and Spanish army under the Marquess of Wellington pursued the war into southern France in the spring of TheBattleofToulouse10AprilwasoneofthefinalbattlesoftheNapoleonicW Unable to move his artillery, he ordered the cannons to take a position near the northern end of the Heights and open fire. Yet in highlighting the dramatic fashioning of sack within the memoir genre especially, there is also a potential danger of failing to grasp the ongoing trauma that British soldiers felt decades after the events themselves.
