Women were considered to have great spiritual power, and could lead rituals or perform divination or prophecy. He remarked upon the importance of prophets in druidic ritual:.

ClassicalsourcesCicero. John Aubrey – had been the first modern writer to incorrectly connect Stonehenge and other megalithic monuments with the druids; since Aubrey's views were confined to his notebooks, the first wide audience for this idea were readers of William Stukeley – Drawn by cows, the chariot travels through the countryside, and wherever the goddess visits, a great feast is held.
