Every professional will claim you and your success is what matters. Forgot your password? But one thing became readily apparent as I learned to climb—waiting is never an option. This book is packed with examples and insights that you can use immediately. If you are not intimately acquainted with the fiduciary responsibilities that are entailed with whatever professional credentials or certifications you hold, I encourage you to familiarize yourself with. Charles Adi, founder of Blueprint in Houston, said clients will talk to him about trust in financial advisers is one thing, but we should also take responsibility for our own financial well-being and educate ourselves, rather than leave everything to the financial adviser. They read a few of the articles I sent via my mailing list or posted online.
