The moment the illumination, the light, is switched on, the darkness is dispelled, so here we have an analogy. This is one of several talks given during the Mind in Harmony retreat at Padmaloka.

Honen's Thought after the Senchakushu Concerning the first point, I would do... Why do things of this painful sort happen to people? Recognition of the way negativity has arisen leads both to a repentance and to reflection on how it happened. But if you could enter the Mahayanapracticed directly, its a vest time. We begin... says, certainly some of them are. Not only that, we need to have completed the mind training in compassion toward all living beings.
