Cultivating this sort of personal mythology is not at all new; it dates back to the earliest days of gangsta rap. Never mention it? Most of us still realise in the US that children are not wiser than adults and because they are children what they say has to be scrutinized and critiqued even more than what an adult says.

But the spike for electric vehicles impacts all sources, not just nuclear. The solar panels require replacement every 15 years last I read. But these women are grilling that cheese.

That always stuck with me. Donald J. Is that the problem? And that is already happening on its own so it may be a moot point in 20 years.
