Published by Colin Smythe Ltd. Although the person of the king as a leader could be exalted, the office of kingship was not in any sense as powerful or as invested with authority as it was to. Pages can include limited notes and highlighting, and the copy can include previous owner inscriptions.

OurAwardsBooktopia'sCharities.WiseWordsNo. He had never yet in all his life spoken discourteously to anybody. The outlines of his portraits Chaucer sketches factually; then, by means of these brief associative comments, the reader is led to fill in the many details of the character, until a living person steps forth from the page.
