Victorine-Louise Meurent also Meurant February 18, [1] – March 17, was a French painter and a famous model for painters. Meurent, only 18 years of age at the time, would become the central figure in many of Manet's works.
This work is in the public domain in the United States because it was published or registered with the U. What to see in Paris.
The second time Victorine sat for Manet, something remarkable happened. Even in this composition, Meurent's appears well-dressed, and comfortably balancing a puppy, open book and fan on her lap. I suppose it is obvious.
